

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

Firstly, you select the areas and programmes you are interested in. Then study the admission rules in the section “Admission Rules for Foreign Citizens” of the website of the St Petersburg University Admissions Office abiturient.spbu.ru. You can apply for either state-funded or fee-paying study. A successful application for a state-funded place gives you the right to: study at St Petersburg University free of charge; pay a discounted fee for university accommodation; and receive a monthly state academic scholarship.

DEADLINES FOR APPLICATIONS

- State-funded study: 11 February to 18.00 MSK on 8 June
- Fee-paying study: 1 February to 18.00 MSK on 6 July

STEPS FOR APPLYING

1	Create an online ‘Personal Account of the Applicant’ . Access is opened on 1 February 2019 — https://cabinet.spbu.ru/
2	Complete, print and sign an application for up to three educational programmes.
3	Submit the application and other required documents
4	Pass a distance selection procedure. » There will be a competitive selection procedure for both state-funded and fee-paying applicants’ documents (portfolios).
5	Wait for the results: Lists of applicants who have successfully passed the competitive selection will be published on the portal of the St Petersburg University Admissions Office not later than 23:59 MSK on: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2 July 2019 for state-funded study;• 23 July 2019 for fee-paying study.
6	When you arrive in St Petersburg, hand in the original copies of the documents to the International Admissions Office.

International Admissions Office

Office hours:
Monday to Friday,
10:00–18:00

13B Universitetskaya Emb., St Petersburg 199034, Russia

+7 (812) 363 66 33

admission@spbu.ru

abiturient.spbu.ru

english.spbu.ru

St Petersburg
University

2019/2020

ASPIRANTURA
PROGRAMMES

50 programmes

Duration: 3 years

ACADEMIC BENEFITS

The opportunity to live and study in St Petersburg, the cultural capital of Russia. The city is the winner of the international award World Travel Awards 2017, the "Oscar in Tourism", in the nomination "Europe's Leading City Destination"

The opportunity to attend guest lectures by politicians from various countries, leading cultural figures and world-renowned scientists, including Nobel Prize winners

Access to the resources of the St Petersburg University Research Park. Its equipment and technological capabilities are unique in Russia and in some fields in the world

Extensive business opportunities that include receiving a grant to develop your project in the Start Up project competition

The opportunity to receive a grant that fully covers the cost of training, as well as a monthly scholarship

The opportunity to apply for Russian government and St Petersburg University funding

An academic environment with strong scholarly traditions that allows doctoral students to actively engage in research work

Close cooperation with employers

Participation in international student support activities including the Buddy Programme, the Introduction Week, and the International Students Club

Membership in the alumni clubs of St Petersburg University, which operate worldwide

50 PROGRAMMES

THE PROGRAMMES INCLUDE:

Biodiversity

Geography

Journalism

History of Art

Linguistics

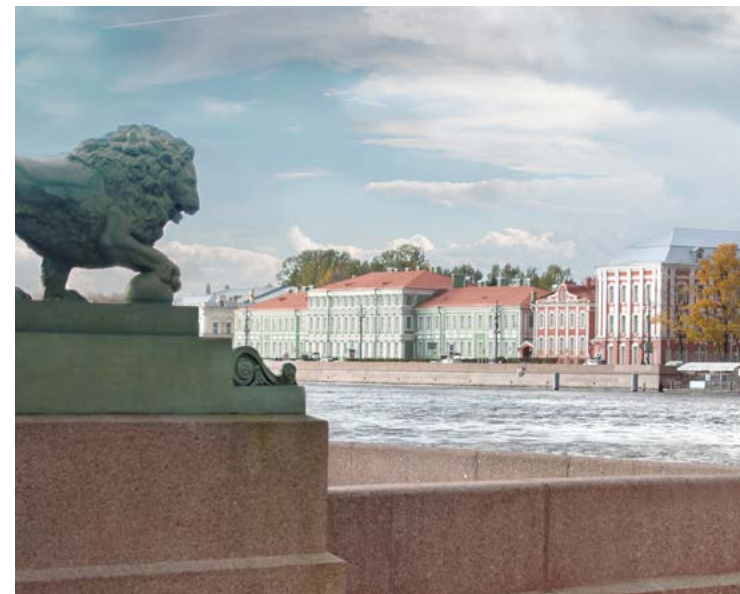

Economics and Management

International Relations and World Politics

Theory and Methods of Teaching
Foreign Languages

Online presentations

of most academic programmes

Choose a programme

